Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence? Yes/No

Because of the nature of the post for which you are applying, the post is exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 by virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975. This means that you are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are spent under the above legislation.

Failure to disclose any convictions will lead to disciplinary actions being undertaken.

All information will be treated with the strictest confidence and used solely in respect of this application. This position involves substantial access to children and young people and therefore a system of checking Police records for possible criminal convictions will be implemented. If therefore your answer to the above question is "yes" please set out full details below:

Please give the date of you last CRB check and enclose a copy of the same:
