

Practical tips for inviting people to Christian events

- Be Intentional—Plan to invite and make sure they are invited
- Don't talk yourself out of it
- Use attractive language—If you're not excited they won't be
- Be Realistic—expect a few knock backs
- Never think that one refusal means never ask me again
- Link the invitation to a meal—you have the chance to chat afterwards.
- Become known as an inviter

Practical tips for inviting people to Christian events

- Be Intentional—Plan to invite and make sure they are invited
- Don't talk yourself out of it
- Use attractive language—If you're not excited they won't be
- Be Realistic—expect a few knock backs
- Never think that one refusal means never ask me again
- Link the invitation to a meal—you have the chance to chat afterwards.
- Become known as an inviter

- Organize to pick the person up and go with them
- Ask 2 or more to go - people feel safer in numbers
- Ring , email, SMS or text to remind them
- Give them enough notice of the event—last minute invitations are often rejected.
- Pray before you invite and before the event.
- Go even if the person fails to accept - a half empty church says this doesn't matter.
- Let love motivate you

- Organize to pick the person up and go with them
- Ask 2 or more to go - people feel safer in numbers
- Ring , email, SMS or text to remind them
- Give them enough notice of the event—last minute invitations are often rejected.
- Pray before you invite and before the event.
- Go even if the person fails to accept - a half empty church says this doesn't matter.
- Let love motivate you